

LANGUAGE ACCOMPANYING DONATIONS OR GIFTS

The Board of Trustees of the Nanuet Public Library reserves the right, in the exercise of the discretion of a majority of the Board, to determine whether the language that accompanies any specific memorial gift or donation is appropriate in a public library setting. In making this determination, the Board of Trustees of the Nanuet Public Library shall apply all federal and state laws and regulations, including specifically those statutes which relate to civil rights and non-discrimination; the Board of Trustees shall also apply standards of acceptability based upon those generally recognized in the Nanuet and Rockland communities to the extent that the Board is able to gauge or recognize such standards.
