

PARENTAL PERMISSION FOR UNFILTERED INTERNET ACCESS IN THE ADULT AREA OF THE NANUET PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Internet offers unlimited global access to information. Not all sources on the Internet provide information that is accurate, complete, current, legal, or that is philosophically or morally acceptable to all citizens. The Nanuet Public Library does not monitor or control the content of materials on the Internet, which change rapidly and unpredictably.

Parents and guardians of children under the age of 18 are responsible for their children's use of the Internet. Parents should be aware that children will have full access to the World Wide Web, and the only way to monitor their children's search is for the adult to be present at the keyboard.

Parents or guardians MUST stay at the keyboard with a child under the age of 10 throughout his or her use of the Internet.

Parents and guardians of children between the ages of 10 and 13 are responsible for their children's use of the Internet whether or not they remain at the keyboard with the child.

Children between the ages of 14 and 18 have access to the Internet without the written permission of parents or guardians.

The Nanuet Public Library cannot restrict use of the Internet for children holding cards from other libraries.

I have read the above policy and give permission for my child, _____, aged between 10 and 13 years old, to use the Internet when I am not present.
